

18/11/2015 - New Zealand eyes 'world's best country' title for fourth year in a row

123RF.COM; A view of Mount Cook in the South Island. How could you not love us?

New Zealand is vying for the title of the best country in the world for the fourth year in a row.

More than 20,000 have already voted in this year's Telegraph Travel awards, which opened on November 10.

The awards recognise the best destinations, travel companies and airlines around the world.

According to the Telegraph, New Zealand has already emerged as the front runner for the most prestigious award of all - the world's best country.

"As if being the best in the world at rugby isn't enough," the British newspaper said.

(Source; Stuff)